The History Behind Pequod's Pizza: A Chicago Classic

Pequod's Pizza began its journey in Morton Grove, Illinois, a suburban area just outside Chicago. Established in 1970 by Burt Katz, the restaurant quickly gained fame for its unique caramelized crust, achieved by baking the pizza in cast iron pans. Over the years, Pequod's Pizza has maintained its reputation for quality and innovation, becoming a must-visit spot for pizza aficionados.

The success of Pequod's Pizza led to the opening of its popular Chicago location at 2207 N Clybourn Ave, Chicago, IL 60614. This location has become a landmark for both locals and tourists seeking the authentic taste of Chicago-style deep-dish pizza.
